BRUNSWICK TOBACCO FACTORY.—When in Brunswick last week, we accepted an invitation of the Messrs. Gilliam to visit their new Tobacco Factory. We found it to be a suitable frame building three stories high of ample width and length for doing an extensive business. They were busy receiving Tobacco and preparing it for manufacturing and shipment. They have purchased large quantities this year, and have paid the highest prices, determined to have the best article, which they propose to manufacture. Some samples of their last year's manufacture, which we were shown and tasted, were very good indeed. With their extended facilities and energy they will ultimately prove no mean rival to our old and more extensive manufacturers. Success to manufacturers of all kinds—but particularly to those who take the raw article from the producer, and manufacture it at home, not only for consumption but exportation. They are worthy of all encouragement.

BRUNSWICK HOTEL.—This is the house for the traveller: comfortable reception rooms—attentive and polite servants—a table filled with the substantiated delicacies of the land—all overlooked by an active and accommodating proprietor.—Traveller, if you want to fare well, recollect the "Brunswick Hotel," N. HARRY, host.

The Glasgow Times says a gentleman of that place acknowledges having lost $50 the past year by not reading the advertisements in the Times. We can best advise an honest democratic citizen of this county came into our office the other day, and subscribed for the Mercury, remarking that he had been fooled long enough by taking Eastern papers, which contained but little of interest to him—and that he had actually lost about $200 but a few weeks ago by not taking the Mercury and reading the advertisements.—[Paris Mercury.]

We pity your friend, and are glad to see that his eyes are opened to his true interests. Only think of saving $200 by spending $1!

Mail Service.

CHERRY PECTORAL.—We have departed from our usual rule in regard to the advertising of medicines, in admitting the notice of the Cherry Pectoral to our columns. It is not a patent medicine, but one of the contents of which, are well known to the medical profession, and which has proved highly beneficial in the case of a number of our acquaintances, who were seriously afflicted with pulmonary complaints. Some of our most skillful and eminent physicians recommend it to their patients in their regular practice, and we feel that we are conferring a favor upon the public by making known its virtues.—[Louisville Ch. Advocate.]

OPENING OF THE CHICAGO AND ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD.—This road is completed, opened clear through, and the Rock Island can ride on a rail all the way to New York, in 42 hours.

The occasion was properly celebrated on Wednesday, the 22d February. The train left Chicago at half-past eight with the Mayor, Editorial corps, and other gentlemen of the Garden City, taking, upon its way, the authorities of Joliet, Ottawa, Morris, Laval and Peru, and putting them through to Rock Island in a few hours, to participate in the festivities of the day.

The locomotive was decked as a bride—symbolizing the union of the Lakes, with the Great Father of Floods, not by a silken noose but by iron bands.

The three dollar gold coin authorized by the late Congress will be issued as soon as the dies now in progress are completed.

MORE TERRITORIES.—In the U. S. Senate, on the 20th ult., Senator Johnson, of Arkansas, reported a bill having for its object the organization into separate territories of the Choctaw, Cherokee and Creek tribes of Indians.

In Louisville, Mr. H. Matts, of Shelby county, sold three hogheads of Tobacco for $284.02. The net weight was 4,755 pounds and was raised from two and a half acres.

The Legislature of Kentucky has passed a resolution presenting a sword to Gen. Reed, of Larnie county, in that State, for his gallant services during the Mexican war.

Mr. Armstrong, proprietor of the Washington Union, and Printer for the House of Representatives, is dead. A. O. P. Nicholson, of Tennessee, has charge of the paper.

NEUTRAL FLAGS.—The London Shipping Gazette of the 30th ult., states that the announcement had been made by the Russian government that all vessels navigating the Black Sea under neutral flags were to be searched, for the purpose of ascertaining that they were not carrying articles which were contraband of war, for the assistance of the enemy; and if so, they would be immediately seized and confiscated, without regard to flag.

A Western Hand.

A good story is told of a Western captain who hired, "off hand" a shifless fellow, at one of the ports on the Mississippi, to go as a hand on one of his boats, to New Orleans, for forty dollars and found; giving him, in advance, five dollars, to supply an urgent present necessity. The new hand was to be on board in the morning, before the first chickens crowed; but he never made his appearance.

Long after, the captain discovered him at a wooling station, jumped ashore, collared the dishonest hand, and asked him the reason why he had not kept the engagement.

What was the terms? asked the fellow, with the utmost coolness and indifference.

"Forty dollars a month, and found," replied the captain, "you know the terms well enough."

"Very well," replied the recusant, "did you find me?"

That was a poser! The captain hadn't found him until now, although he had looked for him at every port and stopping place on all the rivers he had traversed.

WASN'T SHE SUNK?—A couple who had lived together for some years in seeming contentment one day went a fishing, and tied their boat by a rope to a post in the water. All of a sudden the boat went floating down the stream, and a contest of words immediately arose as to the real cause of the parting of the rope.

The wife said it must have been cut with the scissors, but the husband, an unfeeling old fogey, stoutly maintained that it was a knife that done the business. Scissors! said the wife. Knife! said the husband. Scissors, knife, scissors, knife, said both; but at last the husband, losing his temper, cried out:

"If you say scissors again, I'll duck you."

Scissors! said the wife, determined to hold out to the last.

Away went the old woman into the water, and as she came up the first time, she bellowed "Scissors!" at the top of her voice.

The old man pushed her down again.

"Scissors!" spluttered she, in fainter tones as she rose again, but the old fellow had her by the head, and plump she went down for the third time. Now she rose more slowly and as her waterlogged form neared the surface, having lost the power of articulation, yet determined never to give in, she thrust her hand out of the water, and imitated with the first and second fingers the opening and shutting scissors!

The old man was then convinced that it was useless to try and fetter a woman's speech.

HOME FIRST—EAST NEXT.

I expect to start East about the first of March, to make my Spring purchases, which in extent, quality and prices will exceed any stock of Watches and Jewelry ever brought to this market.

But, previous to that time, I earnestly desire all persons indebted, to call and settle their accounts.

THE CONTRACT OF INSURANCE OFFERS an expedient, by means of which prudent men escape losses. They transfer to others the risks which inevitably cause them. For a small consideration, these risks, which might in an unlucky event, ruin individuals, are safely assumed by Companies, well organized, and judiciously managed. Such an institution is the PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.

This Company bases its operations upon such a perfect plan of cash premiums, well scattered risks and long experience in estimating hazards, that the interests of all concerned are protected. The Company receives from almost innumerable sources and in small sums, a large annual deposit. From this fund, held as a public trust, losses are paid. To secure for the public and the Company a permanent ability to meet every fair demand, no erroneous or fraudulent claims are of course rejected. This is the only plan of Insurance which can long preserve the public confidence, and the undersigned, agents, confidently invite their friends to secure themselves at their Agency, against

PERILS OF NAVIGATION. The advantages of this contract need scarcely be urged upon the reality men or merchants, for they rarely neglect it, and if they do, they leave them other resources. It is especially valuable to laboring men, mechanics, and others of moderate means—who, perhaps have little else than a home and its contents in the world. These should never neglect to insure, for fire which may visit them at any hour, would leave them homeless, and with no capital but their labor, to begin a new struggle in the world. To secure their property, and watching must be before they can regain what they have lost, if indeed it is ever done. To such, insurance is a duty. If the individual is wealthy, the expense is small. He who has more property, still the expense is trifling, and by investing a few dollars he is safe. If he is over-taken by misfortune, and his all laid in ashes, he receives a recompense in a cash capital equal to his loss, and may soon restore what has been destroyed.

POLICIES issued at all times upon favorable terms by PERRY & BARTHOLOW, Agents. Glasgow, Oct. 15, '53.

THE AETNA INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN. ORGANIZED IN 1819.

Capital stock, all paid in and secured, $300,000. Profits for the year ending May 1, '53, $116,178 30.
